

Forest Of Reading Festival

A celebration of reading

Save the Date — May 12, 13, and 14, 2020

Our Forest of Reading Festival is a fun and exciting celebration of reading. With over 20,000 participants, the multi-day event is Canada's largest literary event for young readers.

This year's Festival will take place in Toronto, ON at the Harbourfront Centre. Satellite Festivals will also take place in London and the Waterloo Region.

Visit accessola.com/forest to access resources on how to host your own celebration.

Join in the excitement

Forest of Reading Festival —

Our Festival is a fun and exciting celebration of reading. With over 20,000 participants, the multi-day event is Canada's largest literary event for young readers.

Canadian Awards —

The Forest of Reading® Awards celebrates Canada's top literary achievements. Forest registrants and readers have the unique opportunity to vote for their favourite nominated book to determine the winners on a national level.

