

Name: _____

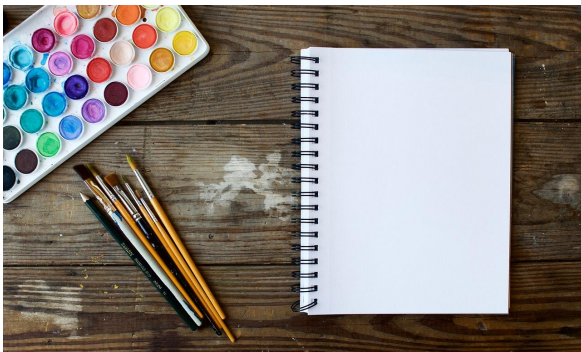

Red Maple Fiction
In the Key of Nira Ghani
by Natasha Deen

Creative Activity

Arts and Culture Café

Nira loved playing her trumpet and her beloved grandmother always thought a good cup of tea helped solve life's problems.

Hold an arts and culture café in your classroom/school library. Students could present a poem, perform a song, play a musical instrument, share clothing and/or food from other cultures.

Tea tasting could also be an option for students. Have students bring in a variety of teas to sample during the café.