

Discussion Questions for Comics Will Break Your Heart by Faith Erin Hicks

- 1) Apparently the book's feud between Micah Kendrick and Joseph Warrick is based on a historical feud between Bob Kane and Bill Finger over the creation of Batman! Have you ever known two people who had difficulty being friends because of their family's tense history? You can read more about the Batman issue here:

- 2) Miriam spends a lot of time worried about the changes that are coming up in her life as she graduates from high school. What are some of those worries and do you think they're realistic? Are the pressures that graduating students face different today than they were 20 years ago?
- 3) One of the additional challenges that Miriam and Weldon face, is that they live in separate cities, and their future is uncertain. Do you think love can stand the test of distance?
- 4) If you could get anything you own signed by its creator, what would it be and why?
