Name: _____

A Plan for Pops
Reading Response

After Pop's fall, he won't come out of his room and Grandad and Lou eat alone. The author writes, "They add hot sauce to every meal. Neither can taste the zing."

Using details from the text and your own ideas, explain what you can infer about how Lou and Grandad are feeling.