

MARIE-RENÉE LAVOIE was born in 1974 in Limoilou, near Quebec City. She is the author of three novels, including Mister Roger and Me, which won ICI Radio-Canada's "Battle of the Books" — the Quebec equivalent of "Canada Reads" — and the Archambault Prize. She lives in Montreal, where she teaches literature at Maisonneuve College.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Diane demande un recomptage (2020)

Autopsy of a Boring Wife (2019)

Mr. Roger and Me (2012)

Photo from goodreads.com

2020 Nominee