

Identity Flower

Instructions:

Reflecting on Yourself:

Draw a flower similar to the one shown in the example. Depending on which characteristics you would like to include, draw that number of petals. You can use the labels from the example and/or some other characteristics listed below:

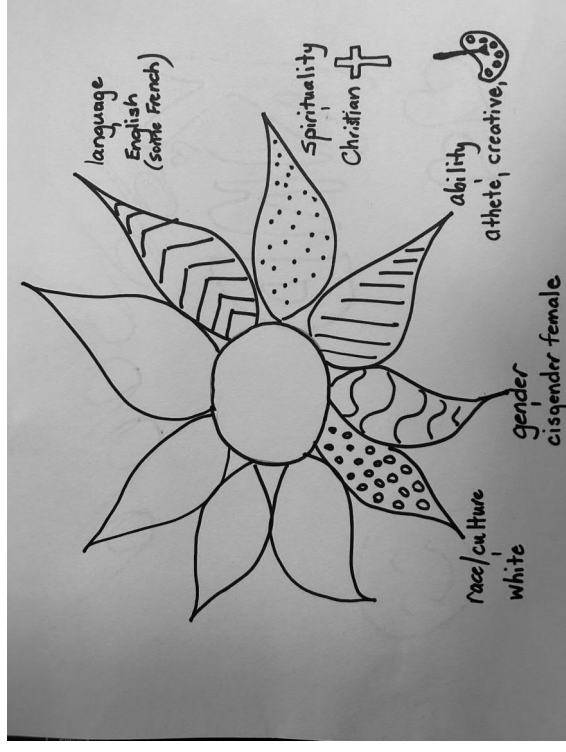

- Sexual orientation
- Socioeconomic status
- Age
- Language

Then use:

- Words
- Names
- Pictures or symbols

for each of the flower petals to represent who you are! :)

*colour and/or pattern can be added

Questions for Discussion:

1. Why is it important to reflect about who we are?
2. Are you comfortable sharing about yourself? Why or why not?
3. How does this activity relate to the book “Jude Saves the World”?
