

During Reading

F A S T Character Traits

Does the character Holly, remind you of another character? Can you make a personal connection to the character? We learn about characters from their feelings, actions words and thoughts. Complete the Character Trait Organizer on one of the characters from the tales.

Feels

Find an example from the story that describes how the character feels.

Acts

Find an example from the story that describes something the character does.

Says

Find something the character says that tells the reader something about the character.

Thinks

Find an example from the story that describes what the character is thinking.