

After Reading

Using a beautiful poetic narrative format, the wind is personified.

Personification is a poetic device that attributes human characteristics to an object.

List words or phrases from the book that display this technique.

For example. The angry wind