

After Reading

The wind reflects Georges emotions throughout the book. Loretta Gould illustrates the emotions through beautiful paintings. Look at her representation of the trees and how they change according to the moods of the author.
Make your own drawing presenting an emotion in nature.

