

The Halifax Explosion and The Canadian Museum for Human Rights

Name: _____

Date: _____

Africville was a vibrant community that existed for a long time. Take some time to read through the information about Africville found on The Canadian Museum for Human Rights website. The answer the following questions, three of which come from this website.

1. What important past events still affect my community today?

2. How can I get involved in decisions that affect my community?

3. Whose stories are left out of local or national history?

4. How does Dr. Aufa Cooper's poem bring attention to the impact of historical events on African-Nova Scotians and residents of Africville?
