Name:

Where the Dark Stands Still by A. B. Poranek Reading Response

In "Where the Dark Stands Still", Liska struggles with her upbringing in the Church and coming to terms with her magic. The two worlds collide for her on her journey through the Driada. Think about the elements in the story that influenced both sides of her struggles and write a short piece on the role of religion vs paganism in the text.

