Discussion Questions

What are the characteristics, skills and strengths of someone who would survive a zombie apocalypse (or other worldwide crisis)? You have survived Covid-19, consider the characteristics of yourself and those you know.

Is there anything you would have done differently than Eira and the others in the same situation?

Where do you think would be the safest place to go in in your community during a zombie apocalypse?

Eira and Soren's parents are survivalists – what do you think of that way of living? Are there pros and cons?

Would you have ended the story in the same way Carrie Mac did?

If you could write a sequel to this book, what would the plot be?
