

“Salma Speaks Up” by Danny Ramadan

Crossword

Down:

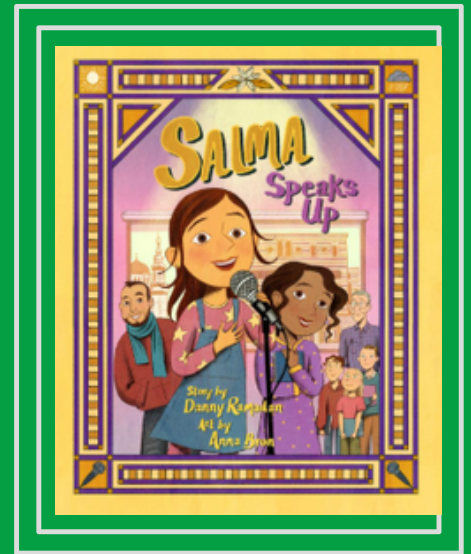

1. The nationality and culture of Salma and her family.
4. The main character of the book who learns to find her own voice.
6. The word for the way someone sounds when they talk, which Nathan tries to make fun of.
8. What Riya secretly dreams of becoming, which is why she joins the club.

Across:

2. Salma's best friend.
3. The thing Salma gains the courage and confidence to embrace and use by the end of the story.
5. The classmate who criticizes Salma and Riya for not speaking English "correctly."
7. The name of the club Salma and Riya join to practice public speaking.

“Salma Speaks Up” by Danny Ramadan

Crossword: Answers

Down:

1. The nationality and culture of Salma and her family.
4. The main character of the book who learns to find her own voice.
6. The word for the way someone sounds when they talk, which Nathan tries to make fun of.
8. What Riya secretly dreams of becoming, which is why she joins the club.

Across:

2. Salma's best friend.
3. The thing Salma gains the courage and confidence to embrace and use by the end of the story.
5. The classmate who criticizes Salma and Riya for not speaking English "correctly."
7. The name of the club Salma and Riya join to practice public speaking.

