

Name _____

The Discovery of Finnegan Wilde by Caroline Pignat Cloze (Fill in the Blank) Activity

Fill in the blanks using the Word Bank. Next, try making your own fill-in-the-blank passage using the same words or others from the book.

WORD BANK:

| | | |
|--------------------|------------------|----------------|
| Carpet Page | Harp of Oak | Swans |
| Cauldron of Plenty | Ireland's Eye | Spirals |
| Celtic | Magnifying Glass | Sword of Light |
| Club | Ogham | Wayfinder |

*

When Finn and Eddie came back to the house hoping to find the Professor starting to feel better but when entered the study, both of them stopped in surprise. There was the Professor sitting at his desk with a big _____ in his hand. He was so engrossed in his work that Finn and Eddie were able to walk behind the Professor and see what he was looking at. It was the _____. There were intricate designs of _____ throughout and intertwined _____ along each edge. When Eddie placed a hand on his father's shoulder, the Professor looked up in surprise.

"Eddie! I've found it! It's real!" Eddie looked at the _____ again with its _____ writing next to each of the four Treasures of Ireland: the _____ which could kindle or consume, the _____ with the power to turn the seasons and touch the soul, the _____ which could take or give life and the _____ with the power to heal. That is what they needed now, to fully heal Eddie's father.

"Fantastic, Father! This might help too," Eddie said as he placed the _____ from the caves at _____ on the desk.

Name _____

The Discovery of Finnegan Wilde by Caroline Pignat Cloze (Fill in the Blank) Activity

The Professor smiled. "Let the Quest begin!"

ANSWER KEY

WORD BANK:

| | | |
|--------------------|------------------|----------------|
| Carpet Page | Harp of Oak | Swans |
| Cauldron of Plenty | Ireland's Eye | Spirals |
| Celtic | Magnifying Glass | Sword of Light |
| Club | Ogham | Wayfinder |

*

When Finn and Eddie came back to the house hoping to find the Professor starting to feel better but when entered the study, both of them stopped in surprise. There was the Professor sitting at his desk with a big Magnifying Glass in his hand. He was so engrossed in his work that Finn and Eddie were able to walk behind the Professor and see what he was looking at. It was the Carpet Page. There were intricate designs of Spirals throughout and intertwined Swans along each edge. When Eddie placed a hand on his father's shoulder, the Professor looked up in surprise.

"Eddie! I've found it! It's real!" Eddie looked at the Carpet Page again with its Ogham writing next to each of the four Treasures of Ireland: The Sword of Light which could kindle or consume, the Harp of Oak with the power to turn the seasons and touch the soul, the Club which could take or give life and the Cauldron of Plenty with the power to heal. That is what they needed now, to fully heal Eddie's father.

"Fantastic, Father! This might help too," Eddie said as he placed the Wayfinder from the caves at Ireland's Eye on the desk.

Name _____

The Discovery of Finnegan Wilde by Caroline Pignat Cloze (Fill in the Blank) Activity

The Professor smiled. "Let the Quest begin!"