Fact #5

THE PATTY WARS TOOK PLACE IN TORONTO IN FEBRUARY 1985 WHEN CANADA'S MEAT INSPECTORS DEMANDED THAT BAKERS AND VENDORS CHANGE THE NAME OF THE BEEF PATTY.

POLITICIANS, LAWYERS, MEDIA, AND CITIZENS WERE INVOLVED.

IN THE END, JAMAICAN PATTIES
GOT TO KEEP

The Sunday Cleaner

ITS NAME.

$1.10

KINGSTON, JAMAICA, FEBRUARY 17, 1985

Canada bans the 'patty'

It is a pie, Ottawa says

From Ewart Walter

THE HUMBLE JAMAICAN PATTY has hit the big time. In New York it is now being sold at the United Nations. In Canada the patty has been banned. Federal Government authorities have banned the use of the word 'natty' to describe the Jamaican

